“ My deepest condolences to Carol's family.

Carol was a member of the Worthington Community of Christ where I remember her attending with Bob, with her mom and later alone on Sunday mornings. She was a delightful lady with sparkling blue eyes and a beautiful smile!

In recent years, she went to lunch after Sunday services with several of us, often at Panera. She loved their cinnamon rolls. I never tired of listening to her recount her and Bob's love story, the stories of her childhood, and her experiences as a nurse. She loved her home that was filled with memories of her beloved Bob and enjoyed living there independently as long as she could. The memories of times shared there with Bob made it her home, her safe place.

Carol loved her sweets. When we visited her at her home and later in rehab/nursing facilities, we would take homemade pie or cookies. We took her warm apple pie our last visit with her. It was heartwarming watching her eat it thanking us profusely. Carol was always positive. She felt very safe satisfied and was grateful to end for the kindness other extended to her to the very end.

I will miss her wonderful stories, those sparkly blue eyes and that smile and her very positive attitude, I loved Carol.
