“ I've been trying to reach Mrs. Stewart for years and I'm sorry that it had to be like this.

Mrs. Stewart was my first grade teacher. I'm a writer today and she and taught me how to write. We had just moved from Sri Lanka and I had barely learned English the year before.

Mrs. Stewart taught me how to write, encouraged me misshapen words, and gave us time to write anything we wanted in the morning. That's when I learned to love writing. I wrote about my teddy bear, about going to space, about my dreams. And she always said great job and gave me stickers.

I still have the notebook I wrote in, with the stickers she gave. I can still smell the scratch-and-sniff ones. I took that notebook into preschool for my own daughter's career day. And I told them about Mrs. Stewart, 10,000 miles away.

Mrs. Stewart made such a difference in my life. I have nothing but the warmest memories of her. I'm so sorry to hear of her passing. I wish I could have let her know. As a young child and still today, I loved her very much.

“ *Carol and I met when my family moved right next door to Carol, Don, and Bill in 1979. Our sons, Eric and Bill, spent time together from elementary school through high school. Carol was the inspiration for my mother, MaryAnn Woolf, and me to join the Corinthian Chapter of Eastern Star, during the first year she was their Worthy Matron. Our involvement in Eastern Star and the Corinthian Chapter was such a special time for all three of us over the years.
Jeanie and Bill, your Mom is and will always be my dear friend and neighbor. My wish for you and your families is to draw some comfort from knowing how loved she is by all who knew her.*

“ I saw Carol's obituary in the paper and wanted to say a word. I work in communications at the College of Education and Human Ecology at Ohio State, Carol's alma mater. It warms my heart to watch her video and see the comments from people who knew her as a dedicated teacher. Clearly, she made a different in the lives of so many young people, as do her many fellow alumni. My sympathy to her family. .

“ Carol was my oldest son’s first grade teacher and NEVER will be forgotten! She was a lovely lady and had such a flare for teaching and it was so evident that she had fun doing so! Carol was sweet loving and caring with her students! Tremont School was blessed to have had her as a teacher💜 I was a room Mother the year my son had her and she was so kind and appreciative and so delightful to be in her presence. I will certainly miss running into her at a store or restaurant because when I did she was always so warm and we had some good conversations.
My condolences to Carol’s family

“ I knew Carol through TWIG. She was a charming and a delightful person. I always enjoyed being with her. I visited her about a month before this virus started. We had a very nice visit. I took her some of my caramels. I hope she enjoyed them. We will all miss her and have a deep sorry of her passing. Eloise Barrett

“ I knew Carol from my volunteer work at Riverside Hospital. She came in to visit her friends at the Dempsey Center and always stopped to say hello. We talked about our white hair, which she celebrated with pink swirls. She had such a welcoming smile, always ready for a hug. I remember one time she had bought a new bathing suit at Over My Head and pulled it out of the bag to show off to all of us. She was such a ray of sunshine! I did not know her well but I am so sorry at her passing. A bit of happiness has passed out of my life.

“ I shared many wonderful times with Carol. We worked very closely in 2006 and 2007 as she was Worthy Matron of Corinthian Chapter #393, OES and I was serving as the Chapter Secretary. We met before each meeting to go over her Agenda. And we also spent a weekend with Judith Hinkle at Lakeside, had a wonderful time. She was a very special friend and I will cherish all the many great memories I have of her. Vilora Severance.
