“ I was privileged to get to know Carole when I worked as the secretary at Columbus First Church in the early 2000's. She was a true friend who was always interested in hearing what was going on in my life. She enjoyed stories about my cats since she loved animals, particularly dogs. Carole was a blessing to our church family, playing the piano for the choir and occasionally Sunday services. Carole was proud of her mother's rose bush in the front yard of her childhood home. Leaving that home was not easy for her, but she made the most of her situation. She thoroughly enjoyed holidays spent with her cousins. Carole loved to eat a complete meal from Wendy's which had to include the correct dipping sauce for her nuggets and just the right amount of ketchup for her fries...and do not forget the Coke and Frosty! I've missed Carole for the past few years, since my family moved away from the Columbus area, but I am grateful that she is truly at home now.
