“ My Aunt Caroline was always interested in her nieces and nephews (Grott children) and always tried to keep up with the important events in their lives(weddings, graduations, anniversaries, and birthdays) during her life. I really had fun over the years with the outings and visits we had as a family. They were enriching. Thankyou. I had a short chat with her when she called last December (2011) to thank me for my christmas card. Even though it was a "short" chat it didn't detract from the quality of our relationship we had had over the years. It didn't leave any regrets, but I didn't realize at the time that would be our last conversation. My mother and I (her sister) had planned to see her the following week. Unfortunatley, we didn't make it. I will always be grateful for the opportunity she and my Uncle Arvin gave me to earn my first paycheck so I could buy my fist car after high school. That opportunity opened a lot of other doors for me. Andy, you did a great job with her care, and I know it was difficult and frustrating at times. It was a testament to the legacy your parents left with you. Hopefully, she's now at rest and piece.

“ Dear Arvin and Arvin 111: Yes, Caroline was a good Sister. I wish we had been closer (I mean physically), so that we could have been closer emotionally. We could have gotten together much more often, and perhaps we could have shared more of the intimate details of our lives. We could have taught each other so many things. But, I guess we did the best we could, under the circumstances. I think we were closer during the last five years. I know that Caroline cared about all of her nieces and nephews very much and had fun with them. I am so relieved Caroline is now experiencing a calm, spiritual world and is totally out of her pain. She was in an awfully lot of pain. Medication couldn't even help her. From Jane, Caroline's loving Sister.

“ Arvin, I am sorry to hear of your mother's passing. She holds a strong place in my memories since she was often present during our formative years. That she tolerated our truly juvenile antics only demonstrates more how a mother's love for her child can rise above all else. With respect, I hope she is at peace and that you and your dad find solice.

“ For 69 of your 78 years, you were a big part of my life. School years, after school, though marriages, deaths and happy times, we struggled through together. Although your going left a big hole in my life, we will remember the good times, the laughter, as well as the tears. Sleep well, old friend, You sleep now among the angels, where you belong. Peggy and I will miss you but we could not stand to see you suffer any longer. Love, Maris

“ I worked with Caroline for years at the Dept of Taxation. She was a good friend and after she retired (and I retired) I still kept in contact with her online. I hadn't talked to her yet this year, as she wasn't online as much as I was, so I usually tried to get her in January of the new year to reconnect and find out what was happening with the family. I was so sorry to hear she had died. Another co worker, Larry Poteet is the one that told me. He used to work with her too.
