“ Caroline and I shared a great love for music . I remember going to see a play at her high school she taught at . The Sound of Music . We always shared and chatted on Facebook . I'll always remember our chats at family dinners and other special occasions . She is a Beauty as my dad would say .. She would get a kick out of that . I will miss her and never forget the love and time she always had for me .

“ I jut talked to Sue Widney Smith and she told me of Caroline's passing. Carolyn was the lead in Oklahoma. I talked to Jerry McAfee who couldn't remember the male lead's name from the show. I'm told he wasn't good. Of course Caroline was great with great voice. I'm so sorry to learn of her passing. Don Thyer, Piqua Players

“ I knew Caroline for such a short time. She made such an impression on me. After discovering she had been a school teacher, I instantly knew why. My Dad had been a school teacher and they both had a way about themselves. Teachers are such special people. They have chosen such a valuable profession. I'm certain there are so many people she has inspired through out the years. She played it down though when I asked her about her profession. That just seemed to be her. We worked together, on her home, in 2014. Although health reasons, both her's and mine, had kept us apart she had recently reached out to me. I was awaiting her reply, as to what her schedule was, so we could meet up. This awaited response turned out to be her last week. I had no idea she had taken so ill. I just figured she was busy. Caroline, I'll never forget you! You were such a special lady. Any by the way.....ALL the guys liked working with you as well. You were so kind to all of us. Together with them....we say Goodbye.

“ I remember when my Aunt took me to the World's Fair in Knoxville, TN and we stopped at the Kentucky Horse Farms in Lexington, KY on the way home. We tried so many different foods, went on rides, and met all types people from around the world. Aunt Caroline had such a strong faith and understanding of what it meant to be a Christian. She never raised her voiced or talked negatively about others. Aunt Caroline has educated many children in her career as a teacher and I know she set them on a wonderful path of learning and being inspired. I love her and will cherish our times together. Rest in peace Aunt Caroline.
