“ I knew Casey in grade school, and remember him fondly as a wonderful, kind, and good-hearted young man. He always had a smile for everyone, and, as I remember it, you could see his gentleness and goodness in his kind eyes. I have thought of him so often over the years, and hoped that he was well - I can see that he was well-loved, as he should have been, and that he was, indeed, the kind of man I would have expected him to be. May you all be comforted in your warm memories of this kind soul... Much love,

“ Casey: I will really miss you. You were always kind to everybody. You were a hard worker. You were devoted to Lisa and to the kids. You were a good and loyal son to your dad. I always found you to be interested in other people and what they were doing. I am deeply saddened by your loss. I will always remember you fondly. Chris Cicero.
