“ Dear Cecilia, It was and amazing privilege to met you at Ireland. Now you have finished the race and now we live with the hope that on the day of the Lord we will be able to be together and see ourselves in the Kingdom of the Father.

“ Querido Pepe, No tengo palabras para poder expresar el sentimiento al oír la noticia. Para mi fue un privilegio el poder conocer a Cecilia y a ti, y como sabeis os he tenido y os tengo en mi corazón. Creo que lo unico que puede consolar nuestros corazones en este tiempo es la esperanza que como Hijos de Dios tenemos de poder vernos de nuevo en el Reino de Dios, a pesar del dolor que ahora sufrimos. Estos son los tiempos donde realmente damos testimonio de que creemos en la vida eterna. Quiero expresarte en mi nombre y en nombre de la familia en La Linea nuestro mas profundo amor, nuestras condolencias y sobre todo el dejarte saber que te seguiremos teniendo en nuestras oraciones y que espero que Dios nos de la oportunidad de vernos de nuevo. Dios te Bendiga

“ Dear family, Well, it is hard to believe Tia is gone. When my dad called, crying, to tell me the news, I could not even believe it. I am so sorry Tio, primos and primas. I hope you find peace and comfort in the midst of your loss. Rest in knowing she's in a better place than we are and that we will be with her again, thanks be to God and that we are His people. We are praying for you all and have felt the sadness all the way to Canada. Love you all. Rebecca Cardenas, Whitby, Ontario

“ Dear Rodriguez and Cardenas Families, We treasure the opportunity God gave us to know one of his most beautiful and humble Saints, Sis. Cecilia. We love you, Bro. Pepe, Bro. Victor, Bro. Tony, Sis. Joyce, and all of your family and will continue to pray fervently for you as you run this race set before us, even as Sis. Cecilia has run and now joins the cloud of witnesses who cheers us on from the other side of the veil. In His love, The Burns Family

“ Hello All my beloved Family! Tio Pepe, and my wonderful cousins. I wish I could be there with you all! I love you so much. I am asking that God give you strength and peace during this time. In this life there are so many battles to fight, but we must keep fighting and keep the fatih. I thank God that He has not left us alone and that He is with us. Without Him, how lost we would be! I am thankful that Tia Chila knew who her Savior and Redeemer was and she fought the battle till the last moment. And she won. She won her Crown. She fought the good fight, and is now with her Father in heaven, that loves her more than we ever could. Big hugs and kisses to all of you. Thinking and praying with you. I may not be there in person, but I am in spirit. All my love, Beth Knechtli (Cardenas), Switzerland
