“ Charles will always be remembered as a kind and caring gentleman. He had a soft spot for kids and always joked about his missing finger with our girls. He made them laugh. Jennifer and Melinda would sit on his knee while he entertained them with stories and funny little things like counting his fingers. He was a gentleman who believed in taking care of others. He had a heart of gold. He loved his family and cherished his time with them. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather, uncle and friend. When there was work to be done you could count on Charles pitching in. He smiled frequently and had kind words for everyone. It is with a heavy heart that we must say goodbye to this kind soul. RIP Charles. We will miss you.
