“ I am sorry to hear of Charles passing. I met Charles in November of 1961 when I was invited to their home by his brother Larry. I spent many Sundays and holidays watching football, basketball and baseball with him, Larry and his Dad. He liked to talk politics so we gave him the nick name of Governor. I think he like that better than being called Charles. My heart goes out to Loretta and Deborah in their loss. I am always thankful for the times we had together. Sincerely, Bill Roeber

I am sorry to hear that he passed. I lived in Carson City for 11 years and worked for the city. He served as a volunteer on an important transportation body. He served the longest on that group. When he retired from it, I got to say a few words with him by my side and I admit to having a tear in my eye. He was was a good man and a good American. He served so many of us in so many ways.
