“ Chuck Murray was a friend with whom I have served on many Honor Flights from Columbus. Even though we were never stationed together during our military careers, we shared a bond that only old soldiers understand. The highest tribute I can pay to him is that I would have gladly served beside him in any circumstances, knowing we trusted each other and would always cover each other's back. Watching him as his health declined and knowing there was not much anyone could do was surely difficult for his family. Chuck leaves his family a legacy of boundless love, dedicated service to his country and his community, and the dignity of a life well-lived to the end. Along with the times I was privileged to serve beside him, he will live in my memory as long as I may live. The inspiration to serve was his gift to all who knew him and will go on forever. May God bless Chuck's family and comfort them as they grieve their loss of husband, father and grandfather.
