

Charles B. "Rob" Robinson Jr.

September 21, 2008

Charles B. "Rob" Robinson Jr. ROBINSON Charles "Rob" B. Robinson, Jr., 51, died peacefully in his home September 21, 2008, due to complications from diabetes. Graduate of Worthington High School in 1974. Local painter and owner of CBR Decorating until his health prevented him from continuing his work. Volunteered at Focus Health Care and Alcoholics Anonymous, where he was able to give others a better life because of his past struggles. Rob's dedication and service to these organizations and the care of his mother was done so unselfishly. Enjoyed music, cooking for crowds, Native American culture and watching the Cleveland Browns. Preceded in death by his father Charles Robinson, former pastor of Worthington Presbyterian Church. Survived by his mother, Virginia Robinson; sister, Marilyn (Tony); nieces, Colleen and Corrine of Eugene, Oreg.; and cousins, Joel, Kim, Jean and their families. A memorial service will be 5 p.m. on Thursday, September 25, 2008, at Worthington Presbyterian Church, 773 High St., Worthington. Arrangements by RUTHERFORD-CORBIN FUNERAL HOME, 614-885-4006.
