“ We were so sorry to hear about Charlie's passing. He was a very good and kind gentleman. We always enjoyed visiting with him at the MCL luncheons, not to mention the years we worked at Ashland. We could not make it in person due to illness.

“ Dear Dale, Please accept our deepest sympathy on Charlie's death. He was such a dear, kind man who was always helping others. We will cherish the rocking chair which he made and we won. We found out about Charlie because Deke Lang called our home, and then our daughter Ann called us here in Alabama where we are on vacation. Unfortunately, we will not be able to make the funeral, but we will be praying for you, Reba, and Clint that God will give you strength during this trying time. We are sure that God has welcomed Charlie into his eternal home. God bless you, Bill and Cathie Dotzauer
