“ I was blessed to live, for several years, next-door to Chuck and Nell at VMC in Westerville. A kind, helpful, compassionate man, he embodied what it means to be a true gentleman. There were many times that he helped me with small problems over the years. He and his wife demonstrated a love for each other that is rare in our world today. My prayers are for Nell, their children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Chuck's was a life well lived.

“ We only recently met cousin Chuck Sonner after tracking him down through contacts in Hillsboro. We were fortunate to have the pleasure of visiting several times with Chuck and Nelle at their home. The only regret is that we didn't meet sooner. Our deepest condolences to Nelle and the Sonner extended family.
