

Charles Spademan

March 16, 2011

SPADEMAN Charles F. Spademan, age 84, passed away on March 16, 2011. Charlie was born October 3, 1926 in Lorain, Ohio. After service in the U.S. Navy at the close of World War 2, he received degrees in electrical engineering from Ohio University and the University of Michigan. He earned two patents and co-founded three electronics companies. He is survived by his wife of nearly sixty years, Norma (Bell); his sons, Steven (Candy) and Mark (Elaine); his grandchildren, JC, Andrea, Gregory, Sean, and Sarah; and his great-grandchildren, Devin and Hayden. A service to celebrate his life will be held Saturday, April 2 at 1:30 p.m. at St. John's Episcopal Church, 700 North High Street, Worthington. The family thanks Hospice and Charlie's friends and neighbors, and for a gracious God in giving him to us. Faith Mission, 315 East Long Street, Columbus, Ohio 43215.

“ I worked for Charlie back in 1977 (or so) at MI Sq. Corp. He was a great person to work for and to be around. He had a way of making you feel comfortable, being around him and he was a very enjoyable person. My Father, Frank Alexander worked with him at Industrial Nucleonics and thought very highly of him as well. (My father started working at I.N. in Bert and Roy's 2 car garage) I want to express my condolences to all of the family. There has always been a warm spot in my heart for Charlie. God Bless, Charlie W. Charles Alexander
