“ Mike I know we argued and had many disagreements but my best memory of you is the day my daughter tiffany Leeann Julia wright was born. First off I drove my self in the caddy and you had me go to McDonalds in full labor I had a contraction and my foot came off the break and we rolled into some old mans car lllmao but that day on January 26 2010 our daughter was born and for her ,you will forever have a piece of my heart

Charles I am so very sorry for your loss. I wish we would have stayed in touch and our boys grew up together. Maybe things would have been different. No matter I am so sorry and here for you and your family. Love you always...
