“ My Dad, Wayne Fout, always loved Charlyne. He said she was the first one to make him an uncle. I always had so much fun talking to Charlyne. She seemed to brighten up a room when she walked in. My prayers go out to you Valerie and to the grandchildren. I'm sure you will all greatly miss her. My kids always knew Charlyne as my beautiful cousin from Columbus. Peggy Fout Scott

“ Charlyne and I met in 1960 through our affiliation in the dental profession. We shared many good times and laughs. I have fond memories of the times we cruised the Caribbean together. I visited with her just about a year ago at which time we reminisced about our long friendship. She will be missed. My sincere condolences to her family. Unfortunately I will not be able to attend her funeral service but she and her family will be high in my thoughts.
