“ I can scarcely express my sorrow at receiving word of Cheryl's passing. She was a dear friend from my old teaching days at Easthaven Ele. in Columbus and all the years after. I cherish also our rambling trips to German Village. Distance kept us physically apart in recent years, but that means nothing to the strings of friendship that tied our hearts together. My love and condolences go out to all of her family. What sadness they must feel! June Guzzino

“ Dear Tim, Jeff and Gary, I'm sorry I was unable to come to the funeral home, but still wanted to let you know how sorry we were to hear of your mother's passing. Please know that she and your dad lived their lives to provide for you. She was unselfish and a dedicated worker. Your folks always were willing to help out with the band boosters at a moment's notice. They were fun loving people who always wore a warm smile. They will bring back many memories of the enjoyable years at Linden McKinley. Please remember the fun times with your folks and remember them with love. Fondly, Paul & Carol Parks

“ It's hard to know what to say or do at a time of loss. Even so, just knowing you're there for a friend or family member can be a comfort. If there is anything we can do just let us know.

“ I would like to offer my deepest sympathies to you. Although we haven't met, all of us have experienced the loss of a loved one. I recently lost my mother and know the pain of a broken heart. Our Heavenly Father feels our pain. Psalms 34:18 assures us that He is near to those broken at heart. He does, however, hold out a promise that in the very near future He will wipe out all tears of sorrow and pain from our eyes and death will be no more. (Revelation 21:3-5) He also promises to remember all those in the memorial tombs (graves) and restore them to life. (John 5:28,29) Until those words are fulfilled, may you find much peace and comfort in God and in His promises found in the Holy Scriptures.

“ My deepest sympathy to the Brewer Brothers: Tim, Jeff and Gary. Cheryl was a wonderful person. I am so fortunate to have known her and her wonderful family. She will be missed. However, she is still with us because once you knew her she became a part of you. Heaven has another angel who is now watching over us. God bless!
