“ Tommie, Bobby, and all of Chris' Family; We loved Chris like a member of our family. Our hearts are sad and all of you are in our thoughts and prayers. Chris was always so generous with his time and was ready to help with just a phone call. Chris called me his "in town Mom" because he knew I had a soft spot in my heart and held him close to my heart. We don't know anyone that loved animals more than he did. So many great thoughts and stories are in our in our memory bank and if love and concern could have kept Chris with us he would still be here. We Love you all and hold you close to our hearts.

“ Chris and I became friends in the early nineties, he taught me fishing tips and things you can't learn from others. I am deeply saddened he has past.

“ We are so sorry for your loss. I have two favorite Morris stories. One involves Orange Crush and Vodka. Only Chris knew to put those two together. I had to walk home from work. I'll fix myself a "Crush" in his memory today. The other is seeing him in Danny's truck & thinking Danny had a chick with him but no, it was Morris. He is at peace now.
