“ I am so sorry to hear about Christina. I was in touch with Crystal from time to time & she would update me on her. She was such a great person & so down to earth. Even in all of her struggles, she always had a smile on her face, & so pleasant to be around! My thoughts & prayers are with all of you! I hope that in your loss, you can find the peace that she has now found & received! Love to all of you!! Mel

“ Dear Hodge Family, I would like to extend my sincere condolences. Although we are not acquainted personally, we however share the pain of losing a loved in death. I would like to share with you the comfort that I found in God's loving invitation to "throw all your anxiety upon him because he cares for you"-1Peter 5:7-for he is "near to those that are broken at heart;and those who are crushed in spirit he saves"-Psalms 34:18. A key to enduring your loss is knowing that God promises that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..to a resurrection of life"-John 5:28,29. While grief at the loss of Christina is great, joy at receiving your loved one in the resurrection will be greater.-Mark 5:42. May you find peace and comfort in God's loving promises during this difficult time. Take care

“ My heart and love goes out to all the family. Christina was too sweet and too young to leave us but at least she doesn't have to bear the pain anymore. I know she'll be missed by everyone, including me. Just sorry I wasn't able to visit and can't be there now. Love - Tricia
