“ Chris and I worked together for years at the City of Elyria and I will always consider her a good true friend. I visited her once after she moved to Columbus, but then we both moved again and lost touch. My deepest sympathy to Julie, Maria, Clint and all the family. Chris was a very kind, loving person. She loved her family and her Church. She worked hard and accepted the challenged she faced without complaint. I am certain she is now at rest. Love and Prayers to the family. Carol Drachenberg

“ Dear Family,

I send my prayers and thoughts on the passing of Christine. It was so wonderful to see her after such a long time on December 22 at Clint and Jessica's wedding. She loved and supported her family even in the most difficult circumstances. We will miss her much. May our Lord welcome her home and comfort you all in your sorrow.

“ I have wonderful memories of Christine and the times we shared in the mid-60's. I was new to Elyria and she and the CYO group from St. Agnes became my best friends and that's where I eventually met my husband. Sending my thoughts and prayers to her family and thank you Chris, for being a good friend.

“ Even death cannot erase the special memories you will always carry in your hearts - Mother's love never dies. Although she will be missed, you can rest in the knowledge that Christine is finally at peace and without pain.
