A Death Has Occurred

A death as occurred and everything is changed.

We are painfully aware that life can never be the same again,
That yesterday is over,
That relationships once rich have ended.

But there is another way to look upon this truth.

If life now went on the same,
Without the presence of the one who had died,
we could only conclude that the life we remember
made no contribution,
filled no space,
meant nothing.

The fact that this person left behind a place that cannot be filled is a high tribute to this individual.

Life can be the same after a trinket has been lost, but never after the loss of a treasure.

“ Bub, I miss you more than words can speak. Its been over 2 years and it does not get any easier. I miss waking up and coming in with Maycee and wrestling with you. I miss the fact that when I was having a bad day you would make it better. I miss everything from going shopping together to going to dinner and sitting back and watching tv together. I can't understand why you was taken from us. This pain sucks and I wish things would be different and you were here with us where this pain would not be like it is. I wish I could walk up to you and tell you how much I love you and give you the worlds biggest hug. I hate going to your grave and talking to you, I hate coming here and doing this. I just wish that night went differently. Please if you are listening please give me a sign and let me know you are looking over us! I love you bub and you are always in my heart!
