“ Myra was a wonderful person. I would see her at Friends of the Library booksales and once upon a time I helped her make Little Biddies chocolate. I miss visiting her and Walter at their home when I used to know their kids.

“ Paul, I was your sixth-grade teacher at Medary Elementary School. As a 22-year-old feeling her way, I so appreciated your mother's kind support and encouragement offered with a sense of humor. It is always hard to lose a mother, even when you have been lucky to have her for a long time. I am sorry for your sadness now and hope your life has been a happy one. I must confess that you were one of my favorites.
