“ What a legacy. I spent over 30 years working with Cloyce. He trained me in so much more than just accounting. He was such a great example of integrity, wisdom, knowledge and compassion. His favorite joke was to tell clients they owed a large amount of taxes, then switch to "Oh wait, that's a REFUND!" His motto was "Always let them leave laughing, even when giving bad news." I will miss him until we meet again.

*I worked for several years for Cloyce at his accounting firm, then Harris and Miller, and on to HDBM&M as we shortened the name to. I did sales taxes and payroll taxes and as a joke between us, I found “lost “ files. He was a great boss and understanding person. The world needs more people like him. My condolences to June and the family.

“ Much love to the Miller family on their loss of Cloyce. The Millers were our neighbors growing up and they were always so kind. Cloyce recreated an old fashioned soda shop in their home to share with kids and adults and it was such a happy place for all. Cloyce loved all those around him and the Millers home was a place to eat delicious food and laugh. He was such an example to us on the value of family and he cherished June and the kids. He will be missed. Anne-Renee

“ We had the honor of growing up across the street from The Miller's. Mr. Miller (Cloyce) was always present with his lighthearted jabs and good humor. Mrs. Miller (June) couldn't be any sweeter. We were welcome to just walk on in and June always had something delicious baking! Their home is full of love and joy. Cloyce-Miller will be greatly missed by all who knew him. We are sending love and prayers to June and the family. Jeanne St. Pierre and Tom Zack

Cloyce was a very kind man & his integrity and compassion shined brightly. He made accounting a "joyful" and "exciting" adventure. Our annual visit was so heartwarming as we spent time with a friend and was sad when he retired. We were so touched when he gave Jerry a book (The Purpose Driven Life by Rick Warren). We also admired that he gave his time, talent and treasures, along with a great sense of humor to so many. Our sympathies are extended to his family and may he rest in peace after a well-lived life.
