“ Wonderful aunt never in a bad mood made me feel at home each time I went to visit. She just always had a smile and always looked so beautiful. I know she was so close to her family. She is missed by so many I have such wonderful memories of aunt Connie

“ I am so sorry for your loss. My name is Janice Davis. I was hired by Connie in January of 1999. She asked me to meet her at 'Emerald Crossing' in Dubling, Ohio. I lived in Sunbury, Ohio. When I got there she was sitting in her car and she asked me to join her. Reason being because the building wasn't finished. So I was hired to be the DON for Emerald Crossing Assisted Living facility. After she left ECF she asked me to come to Westerville Retirement and Assistant Living. So after a few months, I got a call from Laura, Head Nurse for said facility, asking me if I would accept DON of the Westerville Assisted Living. I prayed about it and agreed. Many good memories spent with Connie. I have thought of her many times down through the years and sent prayers her way. Saying 'So Long' to a wonderful lady and friend.
