I was very sorry and shocked to hear of Chrystie's passing. I spent an evening a few years ago talking to her about Mike and found her to be a very warm and engaging person. Again, I am very sorry for your loss.*

“ My favorite memory is the days I kinda lived with her years ago one summer when I was having marital issues. Chris, the girls and I had so much fun! Going to the pool most days and playing "beauty salon" with the girls! Chris would listen for hours to me griping and whining and all the time with a smile on her face and a cup of hot tea. (She got me in to drinking tea, Bigalow's Constant Comment!) She encouraged me, let me cry on her shoulder and loved me through a very difficult time. She played an important part in saving my marriage. To this day, Al and I are still married going on 25 years. We're gonna miss you forever my dar-ling Blake. Love you madly!

“ I am one of the many people that have been blessed to know Chris for many years. From high school to present she has always been a kind, loving, fun person. In recent years she has taught us so much about living each day to the fullest. I hope I an inspire and pass on the love to as many as he has! Until we dance together again... I will miss you Chris! Prayers for your family.

“ First of all, I woke up suddenly in the middle of the night, looked on Facebook and saw Jessica's posting. I haven't been back to sleep since then. After sobbing for awhile, I started thinking about all our wonderful memories.

My daughter used to babysit for Jessica and Emily when they were quite young. We would all trick or treat together and have so much fun.

When Chris and I were both single many years ago, we became Paradise Island groupies, following them quite frequently to hear their awesome band. At these bars, we used our alter ego names. She was Blake Holiday and I was Gabrielle Star. The only problem is that we would forget and accidentally call each other by our real names, confusing people near us. Many nights she ended up playing tambourine with the band.

A few years ago, Chris texted several people on a Friday and said, "Don't text me back", just show up tomorrow to do something fun." She didn't explain and Karen Brown and I showed up on Saturday. We went to the zoo and had a behind the scenes tour with Harry Peachey to feed Rosie the rhinoceros and Beco the elephant. What a fun day! Speaking of the zoo, we were both on the Zoofari Committee for many years. Whenever we left to go to Zoofari, she would always say, "I wonder what memories we're going to have when we wake up tomorrow."

ALL my memories of her are nothing short of wonderful.

Chris was always so inspiring and I can't wait to wear a tiara with her in heaven. Love to all the family! ❤️

I remember going to a Zoofari with you and Chris. What a blast we had! She arranged for Harry Peachey to take us into the elephant yard. I remember one of the girls pants for slimed by the elephant's trunk! Wasn't that you? Sweet memories!
