

Damon E. Wetterauer Jr.

August 22, 2012

Damon “Chip” Wetterauer, Jr., age 68, died suddenly Wednesday, August 22, 2012 in Myrtle Beach, SC. surrounded by family. Preceded in death by mother Jean Williams Wetterauer and sister, Lynn Wetterauer Heine. Survived by wife, Kathy Lindblom Wetterauer and children, Karol (John) Hanley, Dwight “Ric” Wetterauer, and Dirk (Nicole) Wetterauer and grandchildren, Sean and Quinn Hanley, Drake and Dakota Wetterauer. Also survived by father, Damon (Mary) Wetterauer, siblings Gregory “Tuck” Wetterauer, Drucie (Ken) Fallon, and Julie (Ty) Barnes and many nieces and nephews. Born on March 22, 1944, Chip was a 1962 graduate of Worthington High School and a 1966 graduate of Oberlin College. He graduated from Capital University Law School and practiced law until his death. Chip was very community minded, serving on Westerville’s City Council for 16 years. He served as Chariman, Vice-Chairman, and Vice-Mayor while on City Council. While serving on City Council, Chip helped to establish a recycling program, proper planning for continued growth of Westerville, and he was active in the passage of the Parks, Recreation and Open Spaces levy. He was particularly proud of forging relationships between City council, the Westerville School Board, the many city boards and commissions, and with neighboring townships. His most recent service to Westerville was as the chair of the 2010 Charter Review Commission. He received the 2011 A. Monroe Courtright Community Award for his years of service to Westerville. Chip was also a long-time coach and commissioner for WYBSL, coaching all 3 of his children. Professionally, Chip was a member of the Columbus Bar Association, Ohio State Bar Association, Supreme Court of Ohio, and the Columbus Apartment Association. In his leisure time, Chip enjoyed playing golf at Rattlesnake Golf Club, piloting their pontoon boat from the Buckeye Boat Club, and spending time at their home in Myrtle Beach. His greatest joy came from spending time with his grandkids. Friends may call at RUTHERFORD-CORBIN FUNERAL HOME 515 High St., Worthington Tuesday 4-8. Celebration service Wednesday 11:00 at Worthington United Methodist Church. Interment Flint Cemetery. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to the Alzheimers Association or the America Heart Association.

“ Chip was my attorney, always professional and never losing an eviction case in 20 years. Once, I told him I was about to become a grandmother. I saw his face light up and he dropped his professional mask. He turned to me and said, "You are about to enter a whole new world. Hang on for the ride of your life, Girl!"

“ To Drucie and your entire family, Some friends and I from Lynn's 1965 high school class came to Southwick funeral home to honor Lynn in her sudden passing. We talked with Drucie, Bruce, Chip and Tuck that evening just a few weeks ago and now you are saying good-bye to Chip. My heart goes out to all of you as you work through the tremendous loss of these loving and loved members of your family. Nancy Pettigrew

“ Dear Kathye, Karol, Ric and Dirk, I'm shocked to learn of Chip's passing. My heart aches for all of you, Chip was one of my best friends and advisor for over 30 years. Chip was without a doubt one of the best people God ever put on this earth, he truly meant so much to me. I will be lost without Chip's advice and guidance. Chip loved all of you and I never ever heard him utter a negative word about his family, he was such a GREAT guy and I will miss him terribly. God bless Chip's soul and his family during this difficult time. Greg Nelson
