“ Dear Bernie & family, We we deeply saddened to learn that Dana had departed us. He touched the lives of many people throughout his entire life. Dana was my co-worker(and later manager) whose friendship I enjoyed while we were at Rockwell International in Norcross & Duluth, GA. Some of my fondest memories were spent after-hours at "The Derby" pub with Dana, my dad and myself listening to & swapping stories about flying, the Air Force and Eastern Airlines (something Dana & my dad had in common). I am a truly better person for having known him. May God comfort and bless you all. Know that he is resting comfortably in Heaven where you will one day be re-united. Blessings, Ted Shoop Buford, GA

“ Dana was one of the finest officers and gentlemen I have ever known. He had a great sense of humor and would make fun of himself and make you laugh and feel good. He could light up a room. He could fly the heck out of an airplane. The world is a better place because of Dana Caldwell. I live in Kennesaw, Ga, a northern suburb of Atlanta. Any family in the area feel free to contact me.
