

Daniel Allen Fabbro

April 5, 2010

FABBRO Daniel Allen Fabbro, age 56, Yankee fan and Bengal fan extraordinaire, departed this life on Monday, April 5, 2010 for the great stadium in the skies. Loving him in life and missing him forever in death is his devoted wife of 28 years, Marcia. His K-9 companion Maci Gray remained faithfully by his side as he struggled with his health this past year. Danny was preceded in death by his father James and mother-in-law Beverley Tortora. He is survived by his mother, Joan and father-in-law, Walter Tortora; sisters, Becky (John), Lois (Ted), Carrie (Dave); and brother, Dennis; sisters-in-law, Debbie (Don), Carla (Dan), Mary Ann (Jerry); brothers-in-law, Marc (Lori), Stephen (Louwana); aunts, uncles and many beloved nieces and nephews. "Dan the man" was blessed with wonderful friends, especially Pete (Loree), Rick (Jenny), Mike (Karen), and others too numerous to mention. The Brews Brothers will never be the same. A memorial service will be held 7 p.m. Friday, April 9, 2010 at the RUTHERFORD-CORBIN FUNERAL HOME, 515 High St., Worthington, OH 43085, where family and friends may call from 4 p.m. until service time. For those who wish, memorial contributions may be made to the ASPCA, 424 E. 92nd St., New York, NY 10128, in Danny's memory.

“ Dear Fabbro family, Although not knowing Mr. Fabbro or your family personally, I want to offer my condolences for your loss. The pain is tremendous from the death of a loved one. It is my hope that you are strengthened from this experience and use this opportunity to increase appreciation and affection for family. As I examine the obituaries and the various ages of individuals that have passed, it emphasizes to me how short life is and how important it is to take advantage of every day of life. We know soon that our Creator will do away with this wicked foe death (Rev 21:3-4) and allow us to live life as he originally intended. It is my hope that you find comfort in these few words.
