“ When I transferred to OSUA in September of 2020. At the end of the belt there was Mr. Dan. Good Morning, Sunshine? He always had the ability to make everyone encountered feel seen and heard. Words can never be able to express the impact that you had on me and my husband Brian's life. Rest Easy Mr Dan. Rest Easy.

Tuesday's news brought a message of disbelief followed by extreme sadness as we tried to comprehend the message of Dan's passing. We will greatly miss our friend. We have been neighbors for years and Dan was a great neighbor and friend. So sad and our thoughts and prayers go out to his family as they try to heal from their loss.

“I'm sure a lot of memories of Dan by people who knew him will no doubt talk about his humor,he could make u laugh on ur worst day.I think it wasn't for attention that he would tell u a funny story or make a funny sound when u walked by but that he enjoyed life and wanted u to share in his joy.I've worked with Dan for many years and have had many get togethers outside of that.I hope to say I was i was a good friend to him and his wife Lori who I would run into weekly and was heartbroken when she passed.Dan lost an Angel and I know right now they are in each other's arms.God bless u Dan and may u rest in peace.
