“ So sad when I heard of his passing. Remember when Dan started at Sherwin-Williams, worked with Dan at the Beta Drive store. Great guy, lots of memories, much peace and love to Sandi and the boys. Chris Brazie, The Sherwin-Williams Company

“ Where do I start. I guess the beginning. My name is Todd Tanner and in 1990 I became Dan's operations manager at Sherwin Williams the St.Louis Commercial Branch. Dan was a great mentor and friend. He taught me how to deal with the pressures of life and work. The first big life pressure was a few months later when my baby daughter Brittany Lyn Moore almost died from RSV and ended up in the ICU. Dan was there every day for me like he has been ever since. I moved to my own store and Dan gave me pointers on employees, customers and SW. A few years later I came back as his rep for the branch that built on what has become a life time of friendship. We would both look in on each other from time to time which was always heart warming. In the last several years we both have had heart issues and like the mentor Dan is he was positive and gave me help as I worked through recovery from my heart attack.

My thought's and prayers are with you Sandy and the boys. I owe Dan for the success I have and will always be on call for your family.

God's Speed and Love,

Todd Tanner

“ Sandy, Ian and Harrison, I cannot begin to tell you how sorry I am. I absolutely loved Dan. I loved our friendship and how it lasted so many years. I loved to hear him talk about you all with his great smile on his face. He was so proud of his boys and would say he knows they get their brains from their mom. He would say that he married "out of his league" and would say what a terrific woman Sandy is, and thanked me so many times for helping he and Sandy get together. I was honored to be in their wedding and I was blessed to have known such a kind, dear man. I miss him already.

“ I hadn't seen Dan since High School, but in our Senior year me and Dan went to lunch everyday in his maroon Chrysler, we or should I say he got crazy one night and I remember him taking that baby out on Rt. 20 and 45 and heading back to Bula on Rt 20 the next thing I knew we were going 120 mph and I was crapping bullets!! But when we slowed down I remember him and me just laughing like crazy! And to this day I have never gone faster in a car! Sorry I never got to see you again, always thought we would get together again, but it was nice getting back in touch on FB! Peace to your family, Tom Karkutt class if HHS 75

“ I was so sorry to hear of Dan's passing. Although I had not seen him since we were teens, I always considered him an important member of the circle of close friends I knew in junior high and high school. That group of friends in Ashtabula helped shape the adult I became and for that I will always be grateful. Knowing we were all "out there" somewhere and doing well and happy in our lives was somehow reassuring to me even without any regular contact. With Dan gone, something will always be missing on those all-too-rare occasions when my path crosses with those Ashtabula memories and the special people who helped create them. Please accept my heartfelt condolences to the family who now must somehow carry on after this tragic loss. My thoughts are with you even though we have never met.
