“ David and I were high school buddies. After collage, we both went on to be educators in different states. We reconnected in our 60's to share our cancer battles. He was a great man and I miss him.

With deep sympathy to all his family and friends,

“ David was a beloved colleague who became my friend.

We would send messages to each other on Facebook to keep in touch, occasionally we we call each other.

He was the colleague that was always there to help and support me, one of my greatest cheerleaders.

He was the friend that was always there to listen and laugh, understanding my past, believing in my future, and accepting me with unconditional love.

Using some of the word from a poem I read:

*I am are here to celebrate David's life
And the measure of its worth
And every single life he touched
While he was here on this earth.
I wish to pay my last respects.
That's why we all are here,
To thank him for his friendship
And all the memories I will hold dear.
It's been a privilege to have known him
We were family, and not just friends,
And I will carry him in my spirit
Until we meet up once again.*

Sending my deepest sympathy, love and light to you Rebecca and to the family.

*May he rest in peace and power,
Cynthia Tyson*
