

David Carsey

November 3, 1976 - January 31, 2025

David “Big D” Andrew Carsey, 48, of Columbus, Ohio passed away peacefully January 31st, 2025. He was born November 3rd, 1976 to Charles and Carol Carsey in Columbus, Ohio. David was preceded in death by his mother, Carol, and his father, Charles. David is survived by his three siblings, “Big Sis” Lori Carsey, “Lil Sis” Sara (Shawn) Delgado, and “TC” Todd (Karen) Carsey. In addition, he is survived by his nieces and nephews, Monica Carsey, Noah Wareham, Regan Carsey, Grant Wareham, Eve Wareham, and Dominic Delgado. He is also survived by his great nephew Grayson Wareham and great niece Vivian Wareham. David was the happiest, kindest, and most compassionate soul. He always wanted to do anything he could to make people smile whether that be cracking a joke or giving you a nickname. He loved his family and always wanted to be around them. He always enjoyed going out and playing different sports with everyone. But not only did he enjoy playing sports, he loved watching them as well. He was the biggest WWE fan and loved to cheer for the Ohio State Buckeyes as well. You would never see him complain even though he was faced with challenges throughout his life. He was truly remarkable. He left a lasting positive impact on every single person he met. His family is eternally grateful to have known him. A celebration of life service will be April 4th at 11:00am at Resurrection Cemetery with lunch to follow
