“ *Goldie and the rest of Dave's fine family: I just returned from out of town to learn that Dave had passed. What a guy. I first met him when he was selling Al Gingery IBM equipment in the 70's. I've been back in the "IBM Building" since 1994 and frequently think of Dave. My condolences to each of you. My thoughts will be with you. I am glad that I knew Dave and through him many of you. “ My thoughts and prayers go to Goldie in this time of grief. Dave always made me laughed and was always a good friend. I will always remember my times in his backyard making hay. Dave will be missed by myself and Niel Shinaberry everytime we make hay. and the beep of his horn when he passed my house. If you need anything Goldie I'm here for you. Dave taught me alot about life and I will never forget that. God bless you and your family.

“ Dave and Goldie, I always enjoyed my friendship with David. He loved the Lord and enjoyed serving his Master. His love of football was felt by many children involved in the Columbus Crusaders football program. I feel certain that God was pleased with his servant Dave and feels he "finished well." Thanks to the Cookson family for their dedication to serving others. In Christ duke/wanda heller

“ Karen and family, We are keeping you and your family in our thoughts and prayers. Your Dad and I had some great conversations over the years when he would drop by the office to visit. We had a lot of laughs and he always gave me a big hug. I will remember his kind nature.

“ To the entire Cookston family, my thoughts are with you during this difficult time. Although it has been 8 years since I have been to a reunion, I always remembered "Cookie" because he was so fun to be around. He was such a warm and caring person and made everybody feel at ease and so welcome. I always enjoyed his pictures in the yearly reunion book and I will miss him. Cheryl House

“ Dear Cookston Family, None of us will fully understand, or fully appreciate, this side of heaven, the impact that Dave's witness had on thousands of families that have passed through the Crusader program. His selfless dedication to the program that he helped start, has resulted in the changing of so many lives for the good throughout the years. Dave's humbleness, and quiet servitude, well, maybe not so quiet on the sidelines at times :-) was an example for all to follow. I am a better person for having known Dave. While we, as the Crusader Family, will mourn and miss our friend, we know that with every breath we take, we are one step closer to being reunited with him. For we are only sojourners in this world, looking forward to the day we can take that last walk off the field at the end of the season and into our new lives in the presence of the Lord. May God comfort and bless us all, as we weep with joy in celebration of Dave's Homecoming. Sincerely, Brian S. Bayless

“ Dear Cookston family, you are in our thoughts and prayers. Our lives has changed so much since our first meeting with 'Cookie', kind, generous and loving, and telling us that he thought Iowa folk were going to be wearing bibs and have corncob pipe in our mouths, he said, "you are just like us", when we met him the first time in Milwaukee. What a nut! And then the phone calls when Iowa and Ohio State were getting ready to play each other in football, wow, lots of ribbings about those games. A master at telling stories and getting everybody fired up at the Navy reunions, won't be the same without his sometimes funny jokes. Ha! We will miss him, and want you all to know we love him dearly for allowing us to get to know him and have him in our life. To the wonder 'salty dog, sailor' salute! Mr. Cookston.
