

David P. Filas

June 10, 2015

Dave Filas, 66, passed away of natural causes on June 10, 2015. He is survived by his wife of 24 years, Melanie Carlin Filas, and his cousins Page Abraham, Craig & Lisa Abraham, Nancy Burkhart, and Steve Blankenship. Dave was born in Akron, OH where he began his varied career as a mechanical engineer in polymers and elastomers. He was very proud of his work on the Boeing airlines escape slides and his many contributions to General Dynamics and the Tomahawk cruise missile.

From the grocery bagger to the local car salesman, Dave never met a stranger. He befriended people for life and was the glue that held them together. At work and at home, Dave was always the go-to guy and always willing to help. He will be dearly missed.

Dave had many talents and hobbies including being an artist, loving fast cars, and training his dogs. Those who knew him know how much he loved his Airedales. In lieu of flowers, Dave would appreciate a contribution to the Airedale Terrier Club of America (ATCA) Rescue and Adoption Committee.

“ *Melanie, I knew Dave and you at Gen. Dynamics. I was always so fond of him. I worked in the same office with Dave, Frank, Jim Stout and Dr. Dye. Just wanted you to know how much I thought of him and how happy I was to go to your wedding in the Park. I lost my husband 19 years ago. It is very hard. I wish you didn't have to grieve for him so soon. Please know my thoughts and prayers are with you. I remember you as a delightfully sweet girl too. Sounds like you had a good marriage and many happy days.

“ Mel -- Been thinking of you often over these last days. Hope you are doing ok.

Although I met Dave only once (after the broken bone incident), i do have a couple memories that make me smile, and I hope will do the same for you.

First -- The lunches Dave packed for you each day with the drawings on the brown lunch bags -- messages from your dog. I hope you still have them and will treasure those small memories forever.

Second -- The time I sent flowers to him -- made sure they were a tropical theme, and the florist included the one flower he hated. We enjoyed a chuckle over that one!

Take care! Be sure to let me know if you make your way back to STL in the future.

“ Mel,
You are in my thoughts and prayers. Some say it gets easier as time goes by. I believe it does and one reason is all the memories of the smallest things to some of the biggest things help in grieving. Of course Dave never got you small things. Lol. I'm so glad we got to see him while you were both down in April. It was great to see you both. I never would have thought that would be the last time I saw Dave. He will be missed by all of us and he certainly was one of a kind. My sympathy to you in this difficult time.

“ Mel,

My heart aches for you as I try to conceive the many emotions you must surely be experiencing now. I can't imagine the pain of losing your best friend; your partner; and the many other roles that Dave was to you.

I recall lots of funny, silly events you and Dave shared together all in the name of humor. (A Christmas tree with ice still on it in the living room always comes to mind!)

Those events are now memories, and it is those memories that will keep Dave close to your heart, and comfort you in time. I hope recalling some of them puts a little smile on your face just when you need it.

Glenn and I are here for you in your every need. (Yes, that may even mean sending you ceviche on dry ice!) You will remain in our thoughts and prayers that God comforts you, strengthens you and eases your pain in ways only He can.

God bless you.

I love you,

Do you remember the reunion when we met up in the lobby, I think you and Dave had just checked in. It was the 'Miami Vice' white suit one. I went to hug him 'hello' and before I knew it he somehow picked me up completely off the ground and kinda swung me over his shoulder and back down. I was speechless but he just broke into laughter from the look in my face.
That is probably my best recollection- Glad to have it. Hugs sweetie.*

“ Mel,

I am so sorry for your loss! I wish I had the right words to share at this time, but there are no "right" words. Just know I am here for you.

I met Dave the night before you married him. I could definitely see the reasons why you fell in love with him. He was handsome, charming, and everyone loved being around him. Most of all, I could see how much he loved you.

The story I'd like to share about Dave is one when he was in quite a bit of trouble....what else is new? You brought Dave to our 10 year reunion in Orlando, where all of your childhood friends would get their first impression of him. How brave of you. When we were all lined up for our class picture, Dave ran in front of the camera and displayed his buttocks! I know you were mad at him, so I had to be mad at him too. I must admit though, deep down inside, I was laughing hysterically! I'm sure as time has passed, you have been able to find the humor in that day too.

We will all miss Dave, but never as much as you. He was your husband, your best friend, and your life. Please know there are many people that care about you and are here for you.

I met Dave on several occasions, starting with when we were recruiting you to Cardinal.

He took very seriously the search for the right community and house for the two of you and even though we met very early in the morning (before you headed out with a realtor), he had a smile on his face and it was clear how he adored you and wanted to make this move with you.....we thank him as we feel so lucky to have you on the Cardinal team.

“ Dearest Dave,

I remember when Melanie told us she was engaged and was so excited! Finally somebody she loved and that really understood her and made her truly happy. I asked what every sister would and wondered your age? When she told me you were "older" I worried and had visions of her marrying this old guy! It wasn't until I met you that I soon realized you were younger than all of us! (and looked younger than a lot of us) I think anybody that knew you would agree that you were truly such a young soul and always would be. I loved that about you.

I will always cherish the memories I have of visiting with you and Mel. Most of all those nights that Mel would have to go to bed and we would talk for hours with our Bud Lights. I had so much respect for you and loved listening to your stories or the advice you would give me when I asked. I thought your wisdom was invaluable and would consume as much as I could. You'll never know how much it meant to me when I would talk to you about good things that would happen for me at work and you saying "good job I'm proud of you!" your opinion meant a lot to me.

Thank you for all the wonderful years you shared with my sister and for taking care of her heart the way you did. You were thoughtful and generous and made her feel appreciated like any woman would love and deserves.

This Christmas I promise to take care of her. I'll do my best to make it beautiful and fun and all the things about Christmas that she loved so much to share with you! I know you will be watching over all of us like the Angel you now are. And of course we will desperately be thinking of and missing you! So, like Silent Night rings, Sleep in Heavenly Peace Dave. (only until you wake up and play a round of golf with pop because you CAN) :)

I love you and will miss you more than you know.

“ Dave & Mel were our next door neighbors for years in Sunset Hills. He is in our top 5 of characters we have ever met. Too many Dave stories to tell here. But here's a few.

-Dave had a cartoon series going about his dog and I was a character in it.

-Dave lost a hand in a poker game at my house, went home, came back, put a gun on the table and said, "There will be no more cheating." (He thought this was hilarious, but the conservative engineers in the card game were pretty nervous because they did not know Dave like I did.)

-Dave told me he was professional poker player (which I believed until I played cards with him.)

-Dave was a great cook, and would frequently bring us dinner, which Jeri loved and Mike appreciated even more, considering the alternative.

-Dave told me his family was in the Romanian? Mafia and in the loan shark business.

-When Dave was sick and it snowed, all his neighbors spontaneously showed up and shoveled his walk and driveway. (Not really a Dave story, but a nice story.)

-Dave kept a gun behind a picture with a hundred dollar bill in his living room. He showed me how if there was an intruder, he would drop the $100 on the floor and then grab the gun.

-Dave always had time for the neighborhood kids, a treat for their dogs, any tool imaginable to borrow, and never turned down happy hour at our house.

Dave, we will miss you. 'Till we meet again.

Mel,

Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Our sincere condolences to you and all of yours and Dave's family and friends. I remember meeting Dave a few times over the years and although I did not get to know him well, I definitely caught a glimpse of the character I have been reading about here! I know you will treasure the memories of your years together. God Bless you and un fuerte abrazo!
