“ Dear Marylin and Courtney, There are not many words that I can say to make you feel better. I just want you to know that David left some friends in Mexico that loved him very much. We first stablished a bussiness relationship, but after few years we became very good friends. We knew several things about you both, because Dave always talked to us very proudly about his family. We feel very sad about his loss, but if you send me your e-mails, I would love to keep on in touch with you. My family and myself remember David so dearly and I am sure he would love to see you smiling again as soon as possible. Sincerely, Manuel Artime

“ A Prayer For My Brother O God who guides life from the beginning to the end who brings completion to all the struggles and wraps meaning around all that has happened. We are in tears as we honor Dave We honor him as a husband, a father, a brother, an Uncle, a brother in law and a friend He lived and loved the best he could His life was the journey it was intended to be From Greenville, Ohio to Dublin We have tears which remind us of our deep love and loss Tears which link us to many memories. We remember his smile when we made us laugh. We thank you for all the times he made us laugh and giggle and reminded us not to always be so serious about everything. We remember his love for Marilyn, his tremendous pride in his beautiful daughter, Courtney We remember him baiting his fishing rod with all the hope that the next fish would be the biggest. We remember him working hard and traveling around the world and all the great success he had in business. We remember how he kept his cars clean, how he saved coins, kept his fishing gear organized and always ready. Our brother has fallen. We are very sad as we say good bye to Dave. He lives now in Love and with God, forever.
