

David Olszewski

September 4, 1953 - April 10, 2024

David Olszewski, resident of Worthington, OH, passed away April 10, 2024. He is survived by his wife of 46 years, Ann ; children Julia Olszewski, and Edward Olszewski (Elizabeth Norton); sister Nancy Danner (Danny); and grandchildren Eloise and Henry Olszewski. David grew up in Parma, Ohio, the son of the late John J Olszewski and Helen Olszewski and brother to Nancy, and the late John F and Robert. He graduated from St. Ignatius High school in Cleveland. He received Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Cleveland State University and Case Western Reserve University. David met Ann, his wife to be, while working at the Cleveland Public Library before beginning a long career as a computer programmer/data analyst, mostly spent with Key Bank. David raised his children and spent most of his life in Cleveland Heights before moving to Worthington, where his love for his grandchildren could not be matched. David had many talents and diverse interests. He was a keen tennis player, before switching to pickleball in retirement. His diverse interests included music, reading, travel, bike riding, history and outdoor activities. He was a lifelong and loyal fan of Cleveland sports teams.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests a contribution to World Central Kitchen at <https://www.worldcentralkitchen.org/> in his memory.

“ I will always remember my Uncle David as a quiet and cerebral man who truly loved his family. I remember going to a Tampa Bay Rays game with him, watching his silent laughter for nine innings, reminding me exactly of my own dad. I know he is now reunited with his mom and dad as well as his brothers watching over our family. Thank you, Uncle David, for a life well lived...
