“ Kevin: After watching you eat all these years, know for sure that you would eat anything that doesn't crawl off your plate. Seems like Ken is having the harder time since he is even pickier than me. He picks beans out of chili but now will eat something that looks like it died on his plate and is decomposing. Yuck! lost 31 pounds last July simply because the hospital food was SOOOOO bad I could not force it down, no way, it was really bad. Have gained about 8 pounds back but eat what I like now just not as much, and shoveling snow helps. But, whatever works. Just seems like it's highly repetitive and what are lentils? He will get tired of the same old same old and give it up. Look like some kind of beans to me but the boy is scarfing them right up. I shudder to think what he would have done with brussels sprouts when he was MUCH younger. Obviously none of the 4H stuff has mayonnaise on it.

“ Sue, I offer you, Pam and Dave and families my sympathy and my admiration. You and Dave have fought the good fight, you have won the race. God's victory is at hand. Thank you for your servanthood and your friendship which began in another funeral home in Grand Rapids. You and Hosanna's "head plumber" touched our lives and that made for many happy times. Martha and I, Amanda, and Emily and Keeler give thanks for Dave and for you and our prayers are with you.
