“ I met David when his mother-in-law Dorrie had her 80th birthday celebration. David's wife, my cousin Valerie, invited me to stay in their home. I will not forget their hospitality, but more importantly, David will always stand out in my mind because he made Valerie so happy.

“ *Erin, Meghan and Matthew,
I'm so sorry for your loss. Although I hadn't seen your father in many years I have lots of memories of him back in Worthington Hills. I remember he was not very pleased with me when I took the three of you down to OSU for an afternoon but mostly because we were supposed to go somewhere else. I also remember the huge taco salad he would eat on Friday nights while sitting in the big chair in the corner. No matter how much you prepare for a loved one's passing, it's always difficult when it becomes reality. I'm hoping he is at peace. Thinking of all of you at this time.
