Mary, Becky, Todd, Cheryl, May God bless you all. So sorry for your loss. I will never forget how excited David used to get at Christmas time. He was as excited as the kids putting up your tree. And how much he enjoyed boy Scouts.

May you all feel comfort in your grief, knowing he is always with you, in your memories, and in spirit. Your former neighbors, Ken and Brenda

Who was David Lee Rudell. He was my brother. As youngsters, we played, argued, fought and had a lot of fun. As teens, we horsed around and had a good time. As adults, we made many memories even though we still argued like we did when we were youngsters. Who was David Lee Rudell, He is my brother and friend, whose adventures in this world have ended and a big new journey has replaced this adventure. To my brother I say, May the wind always fill your sails and you have calm seas, may your course be true and lead you to that reward that lies ahead.
