“ David was always so sweet, warm and welcoming whenever and wherever I'd see him. Such a lovely man! Could always rely on his presence at the entrance to the Worthington church.... there he'd be with a big smile. I used to tease him that if he somehow wasn't present to fulfill all his responsibilities, the church would surely be forced to close. He always enjoyed the chuckle. I'm so very sorry that he's gone and my sincerest condolences go to all his many family members.

“ I will miss David's quiet enthusiasm for church activities and how he loved to take part and just be there. The narthex will not be the same without him! Well done good and faithful servant!
