“ Dear Carol, Craig, and Family,

It was with great sorrow that I learned today of Dave's passing. Dave was such a kind and loving man who sheltered everyone he met. Like so many others, I was a young DHS administrator who benefited from Dave's wisdom and guidance. He could make me laugh during the most stressful times and remind me that the teachers and students, not the tasks, constituted our most important responsibility. The days of marksmanship and plant science in the greenhouse are long gone, but the hearts and minds that Dave touched beat with cherished memories of an honorable man.

*Keeping your family in my prayers,

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this time. So many memories in plant science class. Dave made everyone smile. With his intrest in plants he instilled something in me that I still carry. He was a great teacher and person I am proud to have known.

“ Sure a sorry time to hear that we lost our good friend David -- such a shock -- he and I go back a long way as my first wife Jill was a school classmate and long-time "buddy" -- we have to believe he is in a better place -- memory of his humor and kidding ways will be with us a long time after we say our final goodbye -- may he rest in peace forever --

“ Life without you here on earth will be difficult to get used to especially when boating and fishing season come in the spring! We always loved spending time with you and Sister Carol camping in the RV and boating, no matter the location. We could always count on you to build a great campfire too. The Lord blessed us with your friendship and we will always cherish the memories ... being grateful for the years and times we shared together!

“ Carol, Craig and family, it is with deep sorrow I write this message to you. I was numb when I talked to you last week Carol and have had a hard time processing all this. Anything you need, please call. My first memories of Dave was as a wise guy new teacher and coach at DHS. He quickly pulled me aside and laid out what I had to do if I were going to survive at DHS. He would know, he WAS DHS. What a wonderful life he had, serving others. I was a "City Kid" who had no clue how to ski or shoot skeet. He quickly changed all that and made me his assistant ski club adviser. We took countless trips in his RV to football and baseball games; adult ski trips and poker parties. Picnics and shooting at his house and year end parties. EVERYONE was loved and welcome. He loved the kids that no one else paid any attention to. If I was asked to describe Dave using only one word, that word would be GIVER. God has a new Angel to indoctrinate all the Wise Guy, City Kids coming into the Kingdom. God bless you Dave and may you rest in peace in God's Kingdom.
