

David Weber

September 19, 1970 - November 20, 2025

David Lee Weber, (55), a resident of Worthington, Ohio, passed this life on November 20, 2025 at his office, Media Mouse Ink (in Worthington, Ohio) of cardiac arrest. His death was sudden and completely unexpected.

David was born at St. Lukes Hospital in Cleveland Ohio. He was a software developer who spent endless hours learning new things to offer customers and keeping up with the latest technology. He was a visionary in terms of new project ideas.

Dave graduated from Thomas Worthington High School (Worthington, Ohio) in 1988. During high school, because he was so outgoing, he made friends with many who remained friends to this day. The group often got together to play golf, watch football or play foos-ball.

Dave also was a successful member of the varsity wrestling team.

After high school Dave worked in his father's businesses. He got married and had 3 boys.

As a family they enjoyed all kinds of activities from sports to family get-togethers. Dave was so very proud of his sons and bragged about them all the time.

Dave enjoyed sports on TV from the Pittsburg Steelers to The Ohio State Buckeyes. He was an accomplished golfer and billiards player.

Dave was preceded in death by his father, Danny L. Weber.

He is survived by his 3 sons: Davin Weber of Portland Oregon, Hunter Weber of Vancouver,

Washington, Kaden Weber of Camas, Washington and their mother Tracey Weber, Camas,

Washington; brother, Tim Weber (Tina Weber), Worthington, Ohio; mother, Susan Vincent

(Woody Vincent, deceased) of Worthington, Ohio; niece Brea Young (Dalton).

Friends may call on Sunday November 30, 2025 from 1:00pm to 3:00pm at the Rutherford-Corbin Funeral Home, 515 High Street Worthington where a Celebration of Life Service will be held at 3:00 pm.
