

Della Smith

January 1, 1931 - December 14, 2022

Della Smith passed away this past week just days before her 92nd birthday. She was born in Columbus, Ohio to Howard and Cora (Wolf) Smith, and was preceded in death by her siblings: Howard Smith, Betty Blasko, Bill Smith, Jack Smith, Dorothy Smith, and Arlene McCray. She was a beloved aunt to many nieces and nephews, and a beloved great-aunt to many more. Della lived in the Beechwold neighborhood and worked at Swan Cleaners for over 50 years. She always had a wonderful positive outlook and found something good in everyone and everything around her. The joy that she brought to her many friends and family will be greatly missed.

Tribute Wall

“ Della Smith

January 28, 2023 at 10:24 AM

“ Della was my first boss at my first job at the Beechwold Swan store .I was 16 . What a great lady . We worked hard , but what a wonderful place to work with Della at the helm . I have fond memories of Della and Eddie , and Eleanor, and the others . My mom and dad and brothers thought the world oh Della . She was a blessing to all around her . My condolences to her family . Pete Gelpi

Pete Gelpi - December 27, 2022 at 10:27 AM

“ *My condolences to the family and friends of Della.
Della was a wonderful person. I will miss her. She offered me advice and conversation from cooking, basketball, history to travel. She was happy to share stories of her family.
Della have a wonderful reunion with Dottie and your family. Thank you for all you shared with me. I value the rosary you gave me from Lourdes, thank you for thinking of me.*

Nancy Rader - December 26, 2022 at 12:46 PM