“ Brother D and me were sales Sharks at ITT. He called me "Money Mike". He knows who I am and we thrived on each other for sales. We motivated each other and Derrick was my mentor. I remember driving his killer car to the doctor's when he buffed his leg up. I loved driving "Big Willie" as he called it. My Brother D, I miss you dude! You know who I am. Money Mike

“ My prayers go out from my heart to God on your behalf. In times like these we need a savior! I thank God that Derrick knew the Lord and that he is safe in his arms right now. I know that this is not an easy time for you all. I know that God will comfort you with his love and care. He will continue to send people to cross your pathway with words of life, love and encouragement. Only God knows all the answers to your questions, so seek his face even more. I love you all and I do care for you and your family. I will keep you in my prayers often. Grace and Peace

“ Tamela, Both Chanel and my prayers are with you and your family. Derrick was a close friend and I will certainly miss him and our chats from time to time. Each organization and company he worked for will never have someone like him. I know that Derrick will always be with us and I am truly grateful for having his friendship through the years. Gary

“ Derrick and I were co-workers in the Office of Student Support Services at Margrove College. His motivating spirit spread like wildfire amongst the students. He was a great mentor and support system for the students, especially the males. It was a great loss when he left Marygrove, but this is an even greater loss now that his spirit is away from us. Many prayers for his family and friends. Tiffany Jennings, Retention Coordinator Student Support Services Marygrove College

“ I worked with Derrick for a short time at DeVry University. He was on my immediate team and was a joy to work with. "Big D" brought fun, laughter, and friendship to DeVry, in addition to being a dedicated worker. I am honored to have known Derrick and my thoughts and prayers are with you all during this difficult time.
