“ *Damion, Richelle, Chase, Grant and Elle,
When Grant was born, during the "changing of the Grandma guard" watching Chase, I told Dianne what a fine job she had done raising a fine young man like Damion. She then related a touching and funny story about him as a child. It was so like Dianne to sort of deflect the praise but I could tell she was happy to her toes about what I said! I am so glad I told her in life! She loved all of you.
Love

“ Damion. I knew your Mom when we were just kids growing up in Dublin. She was always up for all the fun (and stupid) things that kids did at that age. Dianne was a smart and kind person who always tried to make you feel included. I know that your Aunt Karen and your Uncles Darryl and Dean will be a great source of comfort to you in your loss.
Please accept my most sincere condolences. John Yeager
