“ Uncle Don was such a loving and special person in our lives. He was the one that brought us together by searching for my mother's family. He gave to us a very important family research collection that he did on the Hoke/Ayers family. This is a treasure for me to know names, dates and family connections. He will be greatly missed by his family and friends. With our deepest sympathy, love and prayers, Susan and Roger Scott Ruckersville, Virginia

“ I have the fondest memories of Uncle Donald. He was full of joy everytime I saw him. Great memories of visiting him in Ohio as a kid and going to Reds games. I will treasure these memories as long as I am on this earth and look forward to seeing him in heaven. In prayer for Helen, Kay, and Tom and the rest of the family. He is alright because he is in heaven but I know that you will miss him.

“ Cousin: I feel your pain, I feel your emptiness. Just know that you had a wonderful father; some never have that. He and Daddy can now laugh together, along with Gran and all the others who are smiling down at us everyday. I love you, Karen

“ Don will always be remembered by me as the cheerful soldier that I was honored to have known. We had many talks about the military during the numerous gatherings at Kay's house. I know that he is reuniting with the many World War II veterans who have traveled the road to their final resting place. God Bless you Don and many prayers to your family.

“ Don you were "one of the good old guys"always looking on the bright side of life. How could I forget your words "first time Ive been in a plane that crashed before we even took off " This describes a sightseeing flight we went on during one of his trips down under, what happended was when I boarded the plane at the rear the aircraft tipped to a nose up attitude with the front wheel off the ground and the tail end resting on a skid.The pilot was not happy and we had to re arrange our seating positions. It was funny though, and we had a laugh about it. Don is now at peace. Our thoughts go out to the family at this emotional sad time. from the Mclvor clan in New Zealand
