

Donald G. Spangler

March 17, 1947 - November 19, 2017

Donald Gale Spangler died suddenly on November 19, 2017 in Dublin. Don was born in Columbus in 1947. He married Janice Varga (née Smith) in 1996. Don graduated from Linden McKinley High School in 1965. An inveterate tinkerer, Don was the original owner of the Westerville Bike Shop. Don later owned and managed the Glengarry Shell station in Westerville and the Sawmill Marathon station in Columbus. He was the recipient of many service awards from the Marathon Oil Company.

Don loved gardening, travel, and his family. He engaged in a spirited running battle with the wildlife at his home. He enjoyed visiting Oglebay and New England with Jan. Don was a loving husband, father, and devoted grandfather to his one grandson with whom he spent many happy hours as Lego architect and engineer extraordinaire.

Don is survived by his beloved wife Jan, daughter Kim (Nathan) DeDino (whom he shared with his former wife, Candice), grandson Calder, sisters Carol Wilcox and Marian (Dan) Large, sister-in-law Joyce Smith, and numerous nieces and nephews. He is predeceased by his parents James Arnold and Mary (Hittle) Spangler.

Visitation hours will be November 25, from 10:00 AM-12:00 PM at the RUTHERFORD FUNERAL HOME AT POWELL 450 W. Olentangy Street

Powell, Ohio 43065. A funeral service will follow at noon. To send an online condolence, please visit www.rutherfordfuneralhomes.com.

“ To the family of Donald Spangler, May the words of many comfort you as you mourn your loss, I am very sorry for your loss. As many people come to comfort you in your home and by the way as I am doing. Our goal is to bring solace to you, because we all have these trails and will be in need of comfort. And are in need of comfort no matter the reason. I am so sorry for your loss.
