“ Solicited me on Prodigy and then America Online. We had multiple phone encounters. He even told me about his upcoming trip to Florida in the 90's where he was first arrested. I wondered for a while why I hadn't heard from him. Anyway, I don't feel too particularly victimized, I just never talked about it in the last 25 years. Was weird to find out a couple years ago that he died.

“ Life is a self cleaning oven. Don's life and eventual demise is a perfect example of that.

“ I met with Don the evening he passed. He helped me in more ways than anyone will know. He was a very kind and loving person who was always willing to help someone else before himself. He will be missed greatly.

“ It is very hard to believe Don is no longer with us. He was a very caring man who went out of his way to speak to you and to ask how you were doing. Don sent me a text a few days before the accident and asked how I was doing. I told him it was a bad day at work until I got his text. He replied back, Isn't God amazing. I will miss him.

“ Don was a great guy who helped countless people. He helped me and was there for me when I needed him. That was typical of him and he'll be missed by many people who knew him as I knew him. God Bless you, Don! And God Bless his family.
