Donald O'Neal Shue, age 83, of Worthington, Ohio, completed his earthly journey and went to be with his Lord and Savior on August 4, 2025, peacefully at his home. They met on the first day of her Spring Semester at Cedarville College in 1965. Donald and Susan lived in multiple towns throughout their marriage including Flint Michigan, Wilson North Carolina, Athens and Marietta areas, Ohio. They moved to Worthington, Ohio, in 2007 to be closer to their daughter's family.

survived by his loving siblings, Douglas (Norma) Shue, Philip (Donna) Shue, Debbie (Randy) Allen, brother-in-law John Patchett, all living in Michigan, sister-in-law Marilyn Nichols of Chattanooga, Tennessee, and many nieces and nephews. He is preceded in death by his wife Susan Shue, parents Earlie and Katherine Shue, and sister Bonnie Patchett, who were all rejoicing and waiting at the gates of Heaven upon his arrival.

Known to many for his love of his Lord and Savior and kind heart, he was the minister of multiple churches in southeastern Ohio including Albany Baptist Church and Carpenter Baptist Church. He was a beloved elementary teacher at Rankin Elementary School, Swartz Creek, Michigan, Wilson Christian School, Wilson, North Carolina, and Shade Elementary School, Shade, Ohio. “ Donald Shue was a gracious faithful servant of the Lord at Grace Polaris Church. He comforted many in our GriefShare ministries who lost loved ones with the Word of God and life experiences. He enjoyed shepherding people in Care Facilities through Bible messages, the singing of hymns and prayer. He demonstrated a love for God and love for others.

*Bethany and family you have my sincere condolences.

“ We were blessed to have Don and Susan as our next door neighbors in Worthington. After Susan passed away, Don would take daily (sometimes twice) walks around the neighborhood and would stop and speak with everyone who was outside. He befriended many in our subdivision, and our family had a special place in our hearts for him. Don was the type of neighbor everyone dreams of having, and we will miss him immensely. Rest in heaven, dearest Don. Our sincere condolences to his family.
