“ I have such fond memories of Don when he lived in Independent Living at Trillium Place. I worked there and got to know him and Elsie during that time. I visited with him a couple of months ago since I am now working for another Brookdale community and we had a very nice visit that day! He was a very special man and I want each of you to know that you will be in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. Debbie Kamer

“ I have so many good memories of Don through the years. I first met him when he called on our drugstore in Wapakoneta, Ohio. Everyone looked forward to his visits on Tuesdays. We had wonderful times on Kauffman-Lattimer trips - in later years we would meet for dinner occasionally in Columbus. Sandy and I are so grateful to have known him. Please know our thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends - he will be greatly missed. Charlie Brading
